

LEEDE JONES GABLE INC.

Relationship Disclosure

The purpose of this Relationship Disclosure is to help you better understand the nature of the services that Leede Jones Gable Inc. provides and what you can do to help ensure a satisfactory ongoing relationship with us.¹

1. The services and types of accounts we offer.

We offer two basic account types, an advisory account and a managed account.

In an advisory account you approve all investment decisions, whether or not you have relied on the advice of your investment advisor. Advisory accounts may be either commission or fee based accounts.

In a managed account a portfolio manager is given the discretion to make and implement investment decisions for you on a continuing basis in accordance with your written investment objectives. Managed accounts are strictly fee based accounts.

A commission based account is an account in which you will be charged a commission for each transaction made for your account (buy or sell). Sometimes investments purchased on your behalf may also pay us fees, such as trailer fees in the case of mutual funds and agent's fees in respect of new issue business. In such cases, it is uncommon that you would incur any other additional charges in connection with the purchase of these investments or, in the case of a mutual fund or similar products, their sale.

A fee based account is an account in which you will be charged a monthly fee (plus any applicable taxes like GST) based on a percentage of the value of the securities held in the account. This fee may be a flat fee based on the aggregate value of your account assets; a tiered fee based on the aggregate value of your assets; or different percentages depending on the type of investments held in your account (cash, bonds, stocks).

Managed account and advisory account rates are established by you and your investment advisor in accordance with industry standards and our firm's policies. For non-discretionary advisory accounts we require our investment advisors to inform you of the charges (or reasonable estimate of the charges) you will incur prior to executing any trade for your account. All accounts are subject to administration fees and service charges in accordance with our published rates. You will receive 60 days notice prior to a change in these rates becoming effective.

Depending on which of the above accounts is right for you, you may open one or more of the following accounts:

- Cash Account (CDN or USD)
- Margin Account (CDN or USD)
- Registered Retirement Savings Plan Account (including Locked-In and Spousal)
- Registered Retirement Income Fund Account (including Locked-In and Spousal)
- Registered Education Savings Plan Account
- Tax Free Savings Account

All accounts, except cash accounts, may also be approved to trade options.

Please consult your investment advisor about how each of these accounts operate and which one(s) best meet your investment objectives.

¹ We will notify you of any update to this Relationship Disclosure and will post the updated Relationship Disclosure in the Client Agreement and Disclosures section located in the Private Clients section of our website www.leedejonesgable.com.

2. The type of products we offer.

We offer a wide range of investment products, including stocks, bonds, money market and mutual funds. Your investment advisor can explain these investment products to you, as well as how they work, their risks and possible returns, and whether they are appropriate for you.

We also offer, through our wholly owned subsidiary Leede Insurance Agency Inc., a variety of insurance products and solutions as well as financial, retirement and estate planning services. Your investment advisor would be happy to make a referral for you. If you purchase an insurance product through Leede Insurance Agency Inc., Leede Jones Gable Inc. may receive initial and or trailing compensation through Leede Insurance Agency Inc. who is paid by the insurance company.

3. How we determine what investments are suitable for you.

Before we will provide you with an investment recommendation we will first determine if our recommendation is suitable for you according to our understanding of the information you have given us when you completed or last updated your account documentation. This information is commonly referred to in the securities industry as ‘know your client information’ or ‘KYC Information’. That is why keeping your KYC Information up to date and accurate is very important. Without current and accurate KYC Information, we cannot give you suitable recommendations or reliable investment advice.

We also undertake a suitability assessment in respect of any trading instructions you give to us to buy or sell an investment that we did not recommend to you. Our suitability assessment may be affected by the urgency of your trading instructions or our ability to (timely) access reliable information about your proposed investment. If we determine that your trading instructions are not suitable for you we will advise you against proceeding with the order and either execute the order with a formal notation of our cautionary advice (and, if necessary a request for you to update your account documentation) or refuse to execute your trading instructions.

It is very unusual that we refuse to execute our client's trading instructions but we will exercise our contractual and regulatory prerogative to do so in the case of a wholly unsuitable trade.

The main factors that guide us in determining whether an investment is suitable for you are:

- Your Financial Situation: We learn about your fixed and financial assets, current and long term and your liabilities and the sources and amount of your income.
- Your Investment Knowledge: We assess the level of your investment knowledge.
- Your Investment Objectives: We learn about your financial goals to help us determine your need to keep your money safe, earn income or increase your capital through growth in the market value of your investments.
- Your Time Horizon: We learn about when you expect to need your financial assets (for example, to buy a house, pay for education or enter retirement) how important it is for you to have the ability to quickly and easily convert to cash all or a portion of your investments without experiencing a significant loss in their value.
- Your Risk Tolerance: We assess your ability to tolerate fluctuations in the value of your account and the potential for the temporary and permanent loss of your principal.
- Your Investment Portfolio Composition and Risk Level: We assess how the purchase or sale of particular securities affects the holdings in your overall account(s) in terms of allocation of holdings between debt, equity and other investment classes, the risk of the assets held, and the overall diversification of your investments.

We use these six factors to establish your investment profile. Our understanding of your profile is critical because it will help us suggest the allocation of your financial assets.

Your profile will also enable us to determine (for each account you wish to open with us) whether you have a low, medium, or high tolerance for risk. We will then recommend an appropriate risk rated account that best corresponds with your risk profile and the type of investing you want to undertake (A = Income/Low Risk; B = Balance/Medium Risk; C = Growth/Medium to High Risk; D = Aggressive Growth/High to Very High Risk).

The risk associated with each account (A to D) is the overall investment risk of the account portfolio and not its specific holdings. We rate investments from low risk to high risk. For example, a GIC is low risk whereas borrowing to invest in stock in a junior exploration company is very high risk. We consider all stocks to be at least a medium risk investment.

We will conduct a suitability determination when accepting each of your orders or series of orders; recommending a security or strategy to you; securities are deposited or transferred to your account(s); your investment advisor or portfolio manager changes; and we become aware that there has been a material change in your personal or financial circumstances or objectives. If during our suitability determination we identify any concerns, we will discuss them with you and, as required by our regulators or good business practice, document our discussions and specific cautionary advice.

Given the long-term nature of investing for most clients, we do not automatically review the suitability of the investments in your account(s) when there are market fluctuations, even large fluctuations. Your investment advisor is ready to discuss the effect of market fluctuations on your portfolio with you when you request. We encourage you to speak with your investment advisor, especially if you anticipate the need to convert your assets to cash in the near future or if there has been any other material change in your financial or personal information which may affect your investment objectives or risk tolerance.

If you have a managed account, ongoing suitability is provided as part of the managed account services and in accordance with the six factors described above.

4. The ways we will avoid, manage or disclose conflicts of interest which may arise as we serve your interests and those of others.

In the course of our usual activities, we assume a responsibility to act fairly, honestly and in good faith with our clients. Given the nature of our business, conflicts of interests may arise between you and our firm, its employees or our other clients.

We have policies and procedures in place to address the handling of conflicts of interests. Under these policies and procedures we avoid material conflicts prohibited by law as well as conflicts that we cannot effectively control.

In all other situations when our interests may compete with yours, your interest is always given priority by our acting in one of two ways:

- We control or manage acceptable conflicts by taking such actions or instituting procedures that will adequately control or manage the conflict of interest.
- We disclose information about any remaining conflicts to you so that when you evaluate our recommendations and actions, you can assess independently if conflicts are significant for you.

A more detailed explanation of our Conflicts of Interest policy may be found in the Client Agreement and Disclosures section located in the Private Clients section at leedejonesgable.com. Leede Jones Gable Inc. has minority ownership interests in both the Canadian Securities Exchange and the Aequitas NEO Exchange.

5. The reports we will provide to help you monitor your financial assets and their performance, as well as the fees and charges you pay us or to third parties through us.

Confirmation of transactions. We will provide you with written confirmation of the details of every purchase and sale for your account(s) either electronically or by mail in the manner you elect when you open your account(s).

Account statements. For your account(s), a statement will be provided for each month there is any account activity and in any event, on a quarterly basis. Your account statement confirms all account activity, including purchases and sales of securities, contributions and withdrawals, dividends, interest earned and paid, transfers, and any other transactions that occurred in your account over the previous period. Account statements also list your current holdings. The value of most securities you hold is calculated with reference to the closing price of the last day of the month in the reporting period of the statement. In the case of securities that have ceased trading, where the company is bankrupt, or in other circumstances where a reliable market value cannot be ascertained, no valuation is given.

Performance Benchmarks and How to Use Them: You may assess the performance of your investments by comparing them to an investment performance benchmark. Benchmarks show the performance over time of a select group of securities. There are many different benchmarks. When choosing a benchmark, pick one that reflects your investments. For example, the S&P/TSX Composite Index follows the share prices of the largest companies listed on the Toronto Stock Exchange. This index would be a good benchmark for assessing performance of a Canadian equity fund that invests only in large Canadian companies. It would be a poor benchmark if your investments are diversified in other products, sectors or geographic areas.

We do not provide benchmark comparisons in our monthly account reporting, however comparisons to the major North American composite indices are available upon request and may be periodically provided to you by your Investment Advisor. Please speak to your investment advisor if you have questions about the performance of your portfolio.

Fees and charges paid. Our commission charges for the purchase and sale of securities for your account are recorded on the trade confirmation transaction records that are issued for each purchase and sale. Securities not traded on a public marketplace, such as treasury bills, banker's acceptance and corporate bonds are purchased or sold for you net of any applicable commission or fee. For fee based accounts, including managed accounts, our fees are recorded on your monthly account statement in accordance with rates you established with your investment advisor or portfolio manager.

If your transaction involves a mutual fund, you will incur management fees and expenses for the period of time the mutual fund is held for your account. You may also incur costs for the purchase or sale of the mutual fund. These fees, expenses and costs will be explained to you by your investment advisor before accepting an order from you to purchase or sell a mutual fund for your account.

If you make a trade involving a security which is denominated in a currency other than the currency of the account in which the trade is to settle, a conversion of currency will be required. In such instance, we will act as principal with you in converting the currency at rates established by us. We may earn revenue in addition to the commission applicable to such a trade based on the difference between the applicable bid and ask rates for the currency and the rate at which it is offset in the market. Conversion of currency if required will take place at the trade date unless otherwise agreed.

If you purchase a security using margin or in the event you do not timely settle a trade for your account you will be charged interest until the trade is fully paid for. In such instance your account will be charged interest at rates established by us in accordance with industry standards.

All other fees for our services are published in the Administration and Service Fee Schedule which can be found through eDocs login or in the account opening package that is mailed.
